Chamber of Commerce Gives Big Civic Dinner Tonight

Drive for New Membership Organized and Will Be Launched Next Monday.

Plans and arrangements are complete for the Greater Ukiah Civic Dinner and entertainment to be held this evening at the Palace hotel beginning promptly at 7 o'clock. Reservations have been limited to 300 covers and reports from Chamber of Commerce Reorganization Campaign headquarters indicate that a large attendance will be present. The civic dinner marks the close of the three weeks' preparatory and educational period that has preceded the membership drive which is to be launched next Monday morning and will continue through four days. During these three weeks a systematic attempt has been made to acquaint the entire community by direct mailings and public meetings with the plan and scope of the reorganization movement. Numerous committees have been appointed and meetings held, all leading up to the grand finale which will be the membership drive.

The speaker of the evening will be Jake Allen of San Francisco, one of the best known public speakers in the West. Allen was known as the "Fighting Parson" during the war and of him it is told that although he enlisted as a chaplain he was usually found fighting in the trenches when the hours for chapel service arrived. He has retired from the ministry since returning from France.

Frank Barker, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside at the dinner and will present M. H. Iversen, toastmaster for the occasion. Hale McCowen, Jr., and other local speakers will be on the program. Music will be furnished by De Motte's orchestra. Community singing led by V. W. Giorno will feature the musical program. There will be solos by Mrs. Hazel Waldteufel and Roberd Thomas, accompaniments on the piano being played by Mrs. Roberd Thomas. The pianist for community singing will be Mrs. Sam Wellman. The invitation to the dinner is as broad as the community itself, and all who are interested in the welfare and development of Ukiah are cordially invited. Reservations of places may be made at the Chamber of Commerce room, 303 North State St.

An interesting feature in connection with the reorganization of the Chamber of Commerce is the tentative program of work, drafted and compiled by more than thirty-five representative citizens, which will be submitted to the incoming membership. The following activities to be undertaken first by the organization are recommended:

Improved educational facilities and better school buildings; also Junior College.

A permanent annual entertainment to run from five days to one week, for the dual purpose of affording a week of pleasurable diversion for the community and to stimulate trade.

An intensive and systematic campaign of publicity, which provides for the issuance and proper distribution of appropriate advertising matter to set forth the advantages and attractiveness of Ukiah valley.

An ornamental street lighting sytem to replace the antiquated incandescent strings now in use.

Paving of streets and building of sidewalks.

Completion of Hopland Highway and other rural roads of the community.

A campaign to encourage and bring about closer and better relationship with the rural community.

A specially prepared film to be shown throughout the county visualizing the attractiveness of Ukiah and its immediate vicinity.

A systematic campaign for civic beautification; including, a new building code and the removal of old shacks.

Playgrounds for the children.

Beautifying the local cemetery and removing grass and weeds which constitute a serious fire hazard that would destroy plants and shrubbery.

Last but by no means least, the taking of steps necessary to bringing about closer cooperation among the citizens and a finer community spirit. Working together the citizens of Ukiah can accomplish anything within reason for the town; working singly, or pulling in different directions, little or nothing can be accomplished.

The membership drive will be launched at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, November 28. The field organization will consist of two divisions: The White Division, in charge of Major Lou Hofman; the Blue Division, in charge of Major Lou Cunningham. Each major will have eight men captains and two women captains, who in turn will command teams of three to four workers. The team organization has been instructed to meet at campaign headquarters at 9 o'clock Monday morning at which time a photograph will be made of the entire group. Final instructions will be given the workers and they will canvass prospects for two hours, returning at noon for luncheon and reports at the Palace hotel. A special program at the luncheon meeting will be arranged for each of the four days of the drive. There will also be community singing and speaking. A large bulletin board has been prepared on which will be posted the results of the daily work. Every member counts one point and each $15 unit of the service fund counts a point. It goes wihotut saying that there will be a considerable amount of friendly rivalry result from this competition. In fact, the White Division has already challenged the Blue Division for the losing

Don't Be A Civic "Slacker"

Every community has its Civic Slackers—men who turn an indifferent eye to the live projects of the town. Perhaps it's because they do not KNOW what it all means. There is no partisan wire-pulling to the efforts of your Chamber of Commerce. Here is an organization working for the good of ALL.

You have no right to be indifferent to your town's efforts, hopes and ambitions, than to neglect your OWN FAMILY. For every citizen is in reality a sort of "Relative." You, as a unit, are morally responsible for what is done—what is left UNDONE.

Come now—break through the ice! A crowd of mighty good fellows, fired by an ambition to put the old town over in BIG shape, are giving extra time, unselfishly to this effort. And, best of all, once they get in it, they ENJOY it. They feel that they are accomplishing momentous projects for themselves, their children and their children's children. No town can get along decently without a well-sustained and man-nourished Chamber of Commerce. It is the heart of things—the point of contact, the know-how incentive. Roll your sleeves up and get in with your fellows. Before long, you'll wonder how you kept apart from these movements. Membership instantly establishes you as a LIVE citizen, living in a MODERN spirit.

Bids Opened for Link from Navarro to Sea

Bids for that section of the McDonald to the Sea Highway between Wendling and the mouth of the Navarro river were opened at Sacramento Tuesday.

According to word received by Frank Reynolds, Supervisor of the Fifth District, there were thirteen bidders in all.

The lowest bidder was the firm of J. C. Holland and Co. for $170,239.

West and Costello were the highest bidders, asking $223,732. Supervisor Fairbank's bid was over $200,000.

It is understood that the bid of Erickson and Peterson was a little lower than the Holland Company but it did not arrive until after the time set for the opening of the bids.

Mr. Reynolds states that the Highway Commission estimated the job at about $225,000, which is over $54,000 above the lowest bid. He is of the opinion that this $54,000 can be used in putting the road between Wendling and Cloverdale in fine shape.

It is understood that this company is ready to start work as soon as the Attorney General approves the bid.

The new road will be twelve miles in length and will run along the north bank of the Navarro river. No bridges will be necessary and the side gulches will be taken care of by fills and corrugated iron pipe culverts.

An estimate by the State engineers calls for 180,000 yards of dirt and rock excavation and the removal of a number of stumps.

Materials will include: 450 cubic yards of class A Portland cement concrete for culverts and monuments, corrugated iron pipe—1712 feet 12 inch, 994 feet 15 inch, 260 feet 18 inch and 692 feet 24 inch, and 800 feet of 6 inch tile.

WILMONT GETS LIFE

It took the jury only about twenty minutes to bring in a verdict of first degree murder against Jack Wilmont last Friday evening, after the case had been turned over to them. They recommended life imprisonment. Sentence was pronounced Tuesday and Wilmont was taken to San Quentin.

Throughout the proceedings he maintained a careless attitude, never once manifesting the least concern over his plight or the least regret for his cold-blooded murder of aged Fred Prosser.

TO VISIT HONOLULU

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crawford and son leave on the 30th for an ocean trip which will take them to the Hawaiian islands, where they will spend several weeks. Leslie says he finds himself in difficulties, as he has promised to bring back six grass skirts for various of his feminine admirers and has only five lawn mowers to go with them. The sixth will have to trim her skirt with a pair of sheep shears, or resort to singeing off the surplus.

SANTA ROSA CLEANS LOCALS

The Santa Rosa High School football team was victorious yesterday afternoon over the Ukiah lads by the score of 13 to 19. The game was 13 to 13 until the last few minutes of play, when Santa Rosa put over the winning touchdown. The field and ball were both slippery from the rain but despite the mud both teams played good football.

MYSTERY LAUNCHE'S OWNER APPEARS TO CLAIM CRAFT

FORT BRAGG, November 23.—Hugo Summerstrom, an Oakland contractor, was here Saturday evening making arrangements for reclaiming the launch "Petrel" which was deserted in Mondocino harbor last Sunday evening.

Summerstrom states that he holds a $5,000 mortgage on the craft, which was due November 12, having sold the boat to E. A. Brown eight months ago. Since that time he claims that he was unable to locate the boat, it having dropped completely out of sight.

Rumor has it that federal authorities have been searching for the Petrel for several months as its crew was suspected of smuggling liquor into the United States from Canada and Mexico.

The Petrel is said to be the craft which discharged a cargo of several truck loads of whisky at Tamales Bay, in Marin county, about three months ago. An auto mishap prevented prohibition officers from seizing the trucks as they were en route to the bay district.

After procuring 200 feet of line and 60 feet of anchor chain, Deputy Reise had the boat towed into Russian Gulch. Mechanically, everything was in good shape about the boat with the exception that the switches were left on and the batteries were almost run down. The engine was afterwards started and the boat was brought into Noyo river under its own power.

The Builders Story

Mr. Summerstrom stated that he recently returned to Oakland from Columbia City, Oregon, where he and his brother were engaged in the boat building business for a period of four years.

Prior to closing out, they used up the remaining material in their yard in building the Petrel and another launch of like dimensions.

The Petrel was built to stand all kinds of weather and was equipped with a 55 horse power engine, costing $14,000 completely fitted up.

When he sold the boat to Brown it had a full set of lines, anchor chains, tools, etc., all of which were missing when it was boarded in Mendocino harbor.

It was agreed that Brown was to keep the mortgage holder posted as to his whereabouts and to pay the interest promptly, both of which terms it is said he ignored, and also succeeded in evading searching parties. News of the desertion of the boat at Mendocino was gained through a story published in an Oakland newspaper.

A theory is advanced that Brown and his companions made a big stake smuggling booze into the United States from Canada and Mexican ports and deserted the boat, realizing that a closer search would be made for them since the mortgage had become due.

It is also thought by some that the boat was engaged in smuggling dope from trans-Pacific liners, taken on board at a distance of twenty or thirty miles at sea. It is possible that the suit cases which the men carried might have been full of dope which would bring a price in excess of the value of the launch.

It is understood that the four men who deserted the boat left here with the intention of going to Eureka. At Willits, however, they learned that a stage line running north from Eureka had been discontinued. They then proceeded to San Francisco.

Tract of Farm Land Bought by Stickney

Fred Stickney, superintendent of the Caspar Lumber Co., who has been associated for a number of years in the pear growing business here with C. D. Flowers, this week purchased the Sprague & Pool tract of 20 acres north of the Farmers' Club property. The sale was made by F. C. Albertson.

There is a pear orchard of ten acres on the tract and Mr. Stickney will plant the other ten in pears also.

The price is said to have been $11,000.

Three Cars Burned During Past Week

Three motor vehicles were burned in this vicinity the past week. One was a Maxwell touring car belonging to Bickford, which caught fire on the Pitner hill, north of town, uesday. Monday a touring car caught fire on the Burke hill and was badly damaged, and uesday a truck loaded with shakes went off the grade near the Joe Cox ranch and caught fire and was burned.

Warren Given Judgment for $389.50

The case of Warren vs. Grove has been decided in favor of Warren and he has been awarded $389.50. The principals live near Willits.

Richmond Pearson Hobson to Visit Ukiah Thursday

Richmond Pearson Hobson, famous for his deed of bravery in sinking the Merrimac and bottling up the Spanish navy in the Spanish-American war, and since equally famous as an orator and as a statesman of the highest ideals, will be here next Thursday and will give his great lecture, "The Crisis," at the Christian Church.

In connection with his coming a beautiful 5x8 American flag will be given to one of the rooms in the grammar school. This flag is on display in one of the local store windows. See it, and ask any third or eighth grade boy or girl how you may help them get it for their room.

Plan to be among the four hundred persons who will hear Captain Hobson on the evening of December first at the Christian Church.

MANY NEW CASES FILED IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

A number of petitions were filed this week preliminary to quieting title to an 80-acre tract of land in township 22 north, range 15 west, which lies northwest of Laytonville. The attorney is Geo. E. Redwine and the petitioner for letters is R. L. Cleveland. The individuals on whose estates letters of administration are sought in connection with the matter are Rosa Wilson Hudson, Mary A. Tyson, Wm. M. Burns, and M. D. Wilson.

Through Mannon & Mannon, the Savings Bank of Mendocino County has filed a suit in forecosure against Rufus Blair as administrator of the estate of John R. Blair, deceased, seeking to recover $500 and accrued interest. The mortgage was given to secure a note dated November 22, 1916.

Through the same attorneys, George W. Wilson has applied for letters on the estate of Sina Wilson, who died in 1894. The petition is preliminary to a quiet title suit.

Through outside counsel, Perle B. Nickerson has applied for letters of guardianship over the person and estate of Geo. P. Nickerson, incompetent. The estate consists of cash to the amount of $1919, and certain real estate.

Through Piersol & Stone, John Nimela has asked for admission to probate of the will of Walter Nimela, who died at Palo Alto. The estate consist of a claim for compensation and insurance against the United States for $10,000.

Through Mannon & Mannon, Florence M. Prosser as administratrix of the Fred Prosser estate has filed a suit against A. W. Maher and others to obtain possession of the property belonging to the estate, which was sold by Eugenie Fately, who held a deed to it. Mrs. Prosser maintains the deed from Prosser to Mrs. Fately was merely a trust deed.

GETS OLD VETERAN

The grand daddy of all coyotes in the vicinity of the McNab ranch was caught the first of the week by Pink Burke. The animal was an old veteran whose death has been attempted a score of times, but who hitherto had proved too smart for the hunters.

THE WEATHER

The maximum temperature for the past week was 64 and the minimum 20. A welcome rain set in Wednesday and up to last evening the precipitation had amounted to 1.41 inches for the storm, making a total of 2.48 to date for the season.

Last year up to this time we had had 9.38 inches.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES CELEBRATED LAST WEEK

Five wedding anniversaries were celebrated by Ukiah people the past week. On Thursday evening, the 17th, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Anker arranged a surprise celebration in honor of Mrs. Anker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barrick. The occasion also was the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Anker, Mr. and Mrs. Sassenrath, Mrs. Sassenrath being another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barrick, and was also extended to include Mr. and Mrs. Rob Thomas, whose anniversary came about ten days before. A delicious supper was served by Mrs. Anker, after which the party adjourned to the Thomas home, where the evening was concluded with music.

Another surprise was held last Monday evening at the Bert Hutson home, when a party of friends took possession of the house in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Hutson. On the latter's return they found the assembled guests. The surprise was complete. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. John Geary, Mrs. Bertha Emery, Mrs. Fred Niepp, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Hutson, John Mahood.

HOPPER GIVEN DAMAGES IN AMOUNT OF $500

The case of Hopper vs. the Fish and Game Commission, which was heard by Judge Thompson, has been decided in favor of Hopper, there being no contest. The case was left up to the judge, who has awarded Hopper the sum of $500.

The case was dismissed as to the commission and the judgment is given against Landy and Weger, the deputies who stretched the cord across the road and tied a can to it, which, when Hopper came along horseback and dislodged the can, frightened his horse.

The reason for dismissing the case as to the commission is that the deputies exceeded their authority and the commission is not responsible.

The same point saved the commission in the case of Ginochio vs. the Fish and Game Commission.

SLACKERS GET DESERTS ON NATURALIZATION DAY

Slackers in the late war received scant consideration at the hands of Uncle Sam last Wednesday, which was naturalization day. Four petitions were denied without any hope of future revival because the petitioners were foreigners who refused to serve when drafted, taking advantage of their foreign citizenship and claiming exemption. They were J. W. Mantelli, L. Luchessi, Livio Donati, John E. Bom.

Among those admitted were Oscar Ristola, Erik Nygard, Robert Jacobsen, J. W. Karvonen, A. G. Buckeridge, Giovanni Mattiuzio, N. W. Kleyn-Schoorel, L. J. Siple, M. N. A. Partout, Edward Eriksen, Ben Boni, John Pasero, Doni Tomasi, Guiseppe Gialdini, Jos. Borgna, Chas. Scaramella, Innocenti Franci, Andrew Rinaldo.

The following were denied without prejudice, and the petitioners may try again: Albert Williams, L. Brizzi (whose witnesses were not citizens), Giovanni Del Carlo (who had no certificate of arrival), J. Fori.

ARCHIBALD YELL DEAD

Archibald Yell, who occupied the office of district attorney in this county at one time, being elected in 1879, and who also was assemblyman later, passed away at Sacramento last Friday. He was a native of Fayetteville, Arkansas, and was born May 15, 1857. He came to this community in 1877, settling at Mendocino City, where he practised law until he was elected to the district attorneyship, when he came to Ukiah.

His home had been at Sacramento for some thirty years previous to his death.

B. S. Hirsch has had the interior of his store renovated and rearranged the past ten days and its appearance is much improved. The added convenience more than compensates for the expense.

News From the Nation's Capitol

WASHINGTON, November 21.—The sweeping Democratic victories on November 8, including the capture of numerous Republican strongholds, add to the happy, harmonious and hopeful auspices under which the Hon. Cardell Hull assumes the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee.

Virginia returns the largest Democratic majority in its history after a campaign in which the Republicans had an exceptionally strong candidate for Governor and after they had waged the most aggressive campaign ever made by them in the state. Maryland in a state-wide vote has overturned an unprecedented Republican majority and Kentucky has redeemed her legislature from Republican rule.

While victory in New York City was assured in advance the tremendous majority there was surprising and gratifying. Particularly gratifying were the Democratic victories in important cities and towns in upstate New York, long under Republican misrule and bossism.

The election of the first Democratic mayor in Syracuse in fifteen years is regarded as a personal repudiation of the autocratic reactionary Republicanism of Gov. Miller in his home town.

Recent elections in Connecticut where the turn-over to the Democrats was unusually large was followed on November 8 by a Democratic victory in the important city of Bridgeport and the ousting of a five-term Republican mayor.

As pointed out by Chairman Hull of the Democratic National Committee, the elections generally indicate a trend away from the Republican party and a realization on the part of the people that Republican obstruction and defeat of the Democratic program of reconstruction following the Armistice has brought about disastrous results to business and industry.

The fact that the Democrats carried President Harding's home town of Marion would seem to indicate the waning of the personal popularity of the President. To this is added a touch of irony in the fact that Marion voted for the state soldiers' bonus after President Harding in a speech to the Senate, had brought about the postponement and perhaps the death of the National Bonus Bill.

National Democrats at the Capital are greatly heartened by these general Democratic victories, which they assert will make for party solidarity and, as Chairman Hull expresses it, "will inspire Democrats everywhere to renewed efforts with increasing expectations of success."

Democrats Pay Tribute to Ex-Chairman White.

Hon. George White of Ohio resigned as Chairman of the Democratic National Committee held at St. Louis November 1. This was in accordance with his often expressed wish to retire from the chairmanship whenever the Committee could find a successor satisfactory to all elements in that organization. The ideal man was found in Hon. Cordell Hull of Tennessee, who has assumed the duties of Chairman.

Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of Honorable George White as Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, it is eminently appropriate that we should put upon record the Committee's genuine appreciation of Mr. White's faithful and unselfish services to the party and our estimate of him as a man of the highest type and a Democrat of a robust nature, who believes in the priciples of Democracy and may always be relied on to fight for the supremacy of the party. Mr. White in his retirement from the Chairmanship may be assured that he has the cordial thanks of the Democrats of the nation, the warmest regards of the members of this Committee and he always will have the very best wishes of us all for his happiness and success.

Democratic Amendments Best Features of Tax Bill.

In discussing the Tax Revision bill which passed the Senate by a vote of 38 to 24, Senator Hiram Johnson (Rep., Calif.), made the following left-handed characterization of that iniquitous measure:

"A wag said the other day, though, of course, I would not dare subscribe to such a thing, that the title of the pending bill ought to be changed to read 'An act to permit the dishonest to cheat the Government.'"

Senator Johnson was recorded as not voting on the passage of the bill, and despite many criticisms of the measure by Progressive Republicans, only three Republicans voted against it—La Follette, Moses and Norris. Only one Democrat, Broussard (La.), voted for it.

The most important beneficial emendments to the bill were formulated by Democrats and presented by Senator Simmons (Dem., N. C.), and have heretofore been published in this correspondence. On the last day, Senator Walsh (Dem., Mass.), secured the adoption of the amendment providing for graduated tax on transfers of property by gift, ranging from one per cent on sums between $20,000 and $50,000, and ranging as high as 25 per cent on amounts in excess of $10,000,000.

Senator Smoot's Sales Tax, which previously had met with little favor was again presented and rejected without a record vote.

It is estimated by Treasury experts, who have been charged with having drafted the bill in terms that laymen not only but Senators themselves cannot understand, that the bill will yield $200,000,000 less revenue than the existing law.

An analysis of the Tax Revision bill will be of more value after it has been dealt with by the conference committee representing both Houses.

In the meantime, the general character of the bill was expressed in the following extract from a speech by Senator Simmons (Dem., N. C.), of the Senate Finance Committee:

"Taking all the reductions you have made in behalf of all the other taxpayers of the country, the individual income taxpayers, the miscellaneous taxpayers, you have taken more off of the corporations than you have taken off of all the balance put together. Can you justify that? When you do that sort of thing are you not guilty of the charge I made when I opened the debate that your bill is a bill to relieve the great, rich, powerful corporations of the country at the expense of the balance of the taxpayers of the country?"

The general opinion is that the Tax bill does not square with Republican election promises in any respect.

Democrats Inaugaurated Disarmament Policy. Hope for its Success.

The attitude of the Democratic party past and present on the policy of the limitation of armaments was well expressed officially in the following resolution adopted at a meeting of the Democratic National Committee at St. Louis on November 1:

Whereas, The people of the United States and the world are burdened with enormous taxes due in large part to the preparation for and consequences of war, which the government of the United States expended 93 per cent of its income for wars past, present and future, and

Whereas, The Democratic party inaugurated policy for the limitation of armaments, first by legislative provision in 1916 and secondly through Article VIII of the covenant of the League of Nations, which was proposed by a Democratic President and incorporated therein as a result of his efforts, and

Whereas, The Democratic minorities in the Senate and in the House, with the aid of Progressive Republicans, forced the administration to call the forthcoming conference on disarmament,

Resolved, That the Democratic National Committee expresses its gratification at the assembling of the Disarmament Conference and further expresses, the hope for its complete success.

* * * *

A Democratic View of the Peace Conference.

Senator Swanson (Dem., Va.), correctly characterized the forthcoming conference on the limitation of armaments and voiced the hopes and beliefs of his party and a large majority of the American people in the following extract from a recent address on that subject delivered on the floor of the Senate:

"A more important conference has not assembled since the nations of the world met at Versailles to negotiate peace and devise the terms for world adjustment. Around this conference clusters the hope of a disturbed and apprehensive world. Upon the statesmanship displayed by these conferees depends the future peace of the world and its safe and sound reconstruction. May its deliberations be guided by a wisdom commensurate with its responsibilities. Every effort should be made to make its conclusions wise and successful. Nothing should be done to add to its embarrassment and increase its difficulties. The nations here assembled should discuss matters frankly and in a spirit of conciliation and cooperation. If this conference adjourns without accomplishing the purposes for which it was called, it will be a dark day in the annals of the world. Better that it had never been called than to have it fail. If no agreement is reached as to limitation of armament, the nations here assembled will depart with increased distrust and suspicion, to be followed by increased armies and navies, with all their attendant burdens. But disarmament, the main purpose of the conference, can be accomplished only when national differences are settled and national confidence restored. The just right of each nation should be fully recognized, and all unjust demands firmly resisted. A settlement to be permanent must be just. We should first convince those here assembled that we have no selfish purpose to serve; that we seek only common good for ourselves and the rest of the world. There are many difficulties confronting the conference, but I believe with proper forbearance and concessions they can be successfully settled."

"Thank You"

This acknowledgment of a courtesy or service is somehow the satisfactory end of a transaction. Both parties are pleased and the relations of the moment, however unimportant, are more happily closed.

There is no occasion when an effort made for the comfort or convenience of others is not worth a "thank you."

In the daily routine of telephone operations, where the saving of time is the great consideration, the opportunity of expressing an appreciation of a service rendered seldom arises.

But remember that the telephone operator is human. Courtesy to her means more cheerfulness in her work. It will be reflected in your own self-satisfaction.

The Pacific Telephone And Telegraph Company

Willits, Calif., November 23, 1921.

To the Editor,
Dispatch-Democrat,
Ukiah, Calif.

Our double-page ad in the Dispatch-Democrat of last week gave our sale such publicity that we have broken all county records. Our sales amounted to $7,009.65 the first day. They would have been $8,000 if we could have secured sufficient help to wait on the crowds that packed our store all day Saturday. We have sold over $15,000 in four days, an average of $7.50 for every man, woman and child in our community.

We feel we owe much of this success to your ad and we take pleasure in buying space to advise your Ukiah merchants to advertise in the Dispath-Democrat.

We have seven more sale days. Our sale closes on the evening of December 1, and to keep up our gait we are adding extra specials each day. No one should miss the closing days of the greatest sale ever held in Mendocino county.

San Francisco's Municipal Election

Fight Over Governorship Now Looms

Governor Executes Double Shuffle Move

By J. B. SANFORD

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., November 15th.—Well, San Francisco has had her municipal election and things have quieted down for awhile. There was not much excitement during the campaign and only about one-half of the registered vote was polled. Politics is now being done in a different way to what it used to be. The big mass meeting and marching clubs are a thing of the past. The work now is being done through different civic organizations, business men's clubs, women's clubs and political committees. The personal equation cuts quite a figure. Newspaper publicity is a valuable asset, but it will be noticed that former Mayor E. E. Schmitz was never mentioned by the big dailies, yet he was third high man in the race. The big dailies used to abuse Schmitz but that did no good, so they adopted the plan of never mentioning his name. Schmitz went about his way as usual, attending funerals and kissing the kids, and surprised the town. As a member of the board of supervisors for the past four years Schmitz made a great fight for a lower tax rate, hence his large vote.

The voters are to be congratulated upon the election of a woman to the board of supervisors, Margaret Mary Morgan. She will make good and will be a credit to the board; possibly her presence may have the effect of taming some of the wild ones on that board.

A great many voted this time with the idea of the mayoralty fight in view two years hence. The Italians "single shotted" Rossi and he led the ticket. A number of Republicans voted against McLeran, fearing that a big vote for him might make him a formidable candidate for mayor at the next election. The friends of Eugene Schmitz are already grooming him for mayor and McGregor's friends are boosting him. The wise ones say that Rolph will retire next time which will leave an open field for a field full candidates.

With the city election out of the way, all talk now is centered around the gubernatorial election next year at the Republican primary. The opinion seems general at this writing that the contest in reality will be settled at the Republican primary in August as that party has an overwhelming majority in this state.

The fight centers around Governor Stephens. It is going to be some scrap if half of what one hears is true. There are two factions in the G. O. P. seeking to control. Those on the outside want to get inside, and those on the inside want to stay in. Governor Stephens is the first one to throw his hat into the ring and the fight is on. Governor Stephens is a progressive with the presumed backing of the Hiram Johnson following. He will be opposed vigorously by all the old guard, the reactionaries and some disappointed progressives. There are certainly some powerful forces against him, and if they can be united on a strong candidate it will be a battle royal.

The wise politicians say that the nomination for governor must go to the south as the north has both United States Senators, and it is conceded that Senator Johnson will have no opposition for renomination in his own party. So the powerful forces that are going after the Governor's scalp are looking for a candidate from south of the Tehachapi So far the opposition is unorganized.

The opponents of the Governor it is said will have plenty of the sinews of war and a number of prominent men are willing to make the sacrifice. An effort will be made to select some strong progressive who has been in the Johnson camp as that would have the effect of keeping Johnson neutral. The burden of the fight will be against the Governor's alleged extravagant administration and figures will be flying in the air. The Governor's friends claim that they can combat the charge all right and show that he has been as economical as consistent with the needs of the state. They will attempt to force the attackers to "show" just where and what expenses may be cut and what jobs should be abolished. They claim that the Governor has the confidence of the people and all admit that his rugged honesty and sincerity are unquestioned; that his appointees have been men of high standing and no scandals have marred his administration; that one always knows where to find him and he is not afraid to take a stand. These things are in his favor.

The opposition is without leadership. On the contrary, the Governor's forces are well organized and he has some very shrewd lieutenants whose advice has always been good from a political standpoint. His chief lieuteant on whom he relies implicitly is Al McCabe, insurance commissioner, an able man of a very wide acquaintance. The writer has known Al McCabe for 25 years; knew him when he was secretary of the Democratic state committee; knew him when he was secretary of the Democratic delegation that went to the St. Louis convention in 1904, and has known him ever since. Afterwards, Al was with District Attorney Langdon and was private secretary to Governor Johnson and is now Governor Stephens' insurance commissioner. His brother Ed McCabe was secretary to Governor Budd, and a good one, too. Al McCabe probably knows more men than any other man in the state and is a good judge of men. So the Governor has an advantage in having such a lieutenant, and this is what the opposition will have to meet. Have they such a leader? Have they such a strong candidate? The fight is interesting to us who are sitting on the fence watching the game. All are watching the political checker board intently

Governor Stephens has appointed Justice Shaw of the supreme court to take the position vacated by Chief Justice Angelotti and has named Judge Waste, of the appellate court, to take the place caused by the advancement of Justice Shaw. Attorney Tyler, secretary of the appellate court, has been named for the position made vacant by Waste's promotion. This is what the wise politicians call the double shuffle and is the acme of political finesse. By this kind of a move the Governor gets three appointments. By appointing a superior judge to the appellate bench, he could have gotten one more appointment. The appointments have given general satisfaction, however. When it comes to making appointments right off the reel and good ones at that, we all have to take our hats off to the Governor.

It was thought that the Governor might name a southern jurist to the vacancy caused by the promotion of Shaw, but the southerners were about to get him into a jam. Al McCabe took a hurried trip to Los Angeles and his fine Italian hand is shown in the appointment of Judge Waste, who is one of the squarest men on earth. The Governor got out of the jam and named the best man for the place.

Stephens has made a move; now its the other fellows' move. It shall be our endeavor from time to time to give the situation as it actually exists, without bias or prejudice.

In the meantime hope springs eternal in the optimisitc Democratic breast. Last week's election showed Democratic gains in all the eastern elections. Oscar Underwood says the Democrats will elect a Democratic congress at the next election and a Democratic president in 1924. Mayor Hylan's unprecedented majority of 40,000 in New York City's election has already caused his name to be connected with the Democratic nomination for president in 1924.

division to pay for and serve a turkey dinner to the winning division. The fact that Cunnngham's squad is confident of victory is evidenced by the following announcement, scribbled on a Western Union telegraph blank and slipped beneath the door at campaign headquarters:

"Lou Hofman's renowned Biscuit Shooters will appear in person on Monday, December 1, to wait on and serve Lou Cunningham's Brace Blues."

The announcement was unsigned and Hofman's aggregation is conducting a quiet investigation to ascertain the author of this brazen declaration which, it is claimed, is a distorted version of the real facts in the case. The message should read, they claim: "Lou Cunningham's Indigo Squad will appear in person at a date to be announced later, at which time they will appear in the role of hosts and waiters at a dinner to be served Lou Hofman's victorious White Division."

FALL AND EARLY WINTER SPRAYS

By E. W. DUTTON, County Horticultural Commissioner.

For general clean-up of apple, prune and pear trees for moss, San Jose scale, red spider eggs, etc., use one part of lime sulphur to ten parts water, or 25 pounds of dry lime sulphur to 100 gallons of water, or 25 pounds of B. T. S., a barium sulphur combination, which has equal fungicidial and insectal values with lime sulphur. In the lime sulphur preparations, if desired, 5 to 10 lbs. lime may be slacked and added to each 100 gallons of spray. The additional lime helps in the removal of moss, has a tendency to prevent sunburn, and assists in the spray operation.

For brown apricot, apple aphis, San Jose scale, red spider, etc., an oil emulsion should be used. In case of severe infestation, 10 per cent actual oil content should be applied. Where only aphis or brown apricot scale is present, from5 to 7 per cent actual oil content is sufficient. In case the trees are mossy, ordinary lye should be added at the rate of from 3 to 5 lbs. to 100 gallons of spray. The lye should be placed in the water before the oil emulsion is added. To produce the necessary oil content add enough oil emulsion extra to make up for the inert ingredients contained as per the manufacturers statement on the barrel, if emulsion contains 25 per cent inert matters, use 12½ gallons to the 100 gallon tank.

For control of apple aphis, the oil emulsion may be applied anytime during dormant period. The most effective time will be the last week in November as that is just before the female lays her eggs.

For whitewashing trees in the fall for prevention of winter sunburn or scald, use one quart kerosene to each 10 lbs. of lime. Pour the kerosene over the lime and start it slacking at once with hot water. Ten lbs. of lime should make 8 to 10 gallons of white wash. If this is to be applied to the trees as a spray, reduce it down so that it will just pass through the nozzle without clogging. The lime will stick much better if allowed to cure for a week to ten days after slacking, before it is applied to the trees.

How to Make Bordeaux Mixture

Blue stone (copper sulphate....5 lbs.
Lime ..... 6 lbs.
Water to make .....50 gallons

Dissolve the bluestone in 25 gallons of water by suspending in the top of the barrel in a coarse sack. If the bluestone is pounded up it will dissolve more quickly. Slake the lime and dilute until you have 25 gallons then pour the two together into the spray tank through a strainer. Be sure and use only WOODEN VESSELS in preparing this spray. If a stock solution is desired dissolve the bluestone in water at the rate of a pound to the gallon. Slake the lime in the same quantity of water, and pour into the spray tank as desired. This solution must be used at once after mixing together.

How to Make Lime Sulphur Solution

Sulphur ..... 100 lbs.
Lime ..... 50 lbs.
Water to make ..... 50 gallons

Place 15 gallons of water in the cooking utensil and bring it to the boiling point then add the lime and immediately the sulphur which has previously been made into a thick smooth paste by mixing with warm water. Stir well until the lime is slaked and then add enough water so there will be 50 gallons of the solution when it is through boiling, about 6 gallons additional should be sufficient. Boil for not over one hour and this is important as too long boiling will throw down some of the sulphur, 45 to 50 minutes should be sufficient. When it is cool and settled, strain into air tight containers if it is not to be used at once. Add enough water to make the necessary 50 gallons. This is a stock solution and should be used at the following strengths.

For winter use on dormant trees use from 12 to 15 gallons of this solution to each 100 gallons of water.

For summer applications 4 gallons of the stock solution should be used to each 100 gallons of water.

MENDOCINO COUNTY HAS HOP ACREAGE OF 1767

In its issue of November 4, the Dispatch-Democrat published the figures on the Mendocino county hop crop for the current year, as compiled by F. C. Albertson, well known local hop broker, who has compiled these figures for many years. The total as given then was 10,609 bales, but three more bales have been added since, bringing the total up to 10,612.

The same article gave last year's crop as 21,111, but this was erroneous, due to a typographical error in the transposition of the first two figures. The figures should have been 12,111.

Mr. Albertson has lately compiled the figures on the acreage and finds a total of 1767 acres planted this year, distributed as follows:

A WELL SATISFIED ADVERTISER

When an advertiser is willing to pay hard money in order to buy space to tell the public how well satisfied he is with a certain advertising medium, it is a pretty good indication that he is sincere in what he says. We refer our readers to the announcement of the Willits Mercantile Company, on page 3 of this issue. The Willits concern bought two pages in this paper last week to advertise their sale. This week they are buying more space to tell the public what our ad did for them.

We are proud of this tribute, for the reason that it is entirely unsolicited and spontaneous. It is usually not the custom of an advertiser to acknowledge the value of the service he receives. He takes it as a matter of course. Perhaps the action of the Willits Mercantile Co. in this connection furnishes an intimation of the reason that firm has been so successful in its field. Generosity and broad-mindedness have never worked a disadvantage to any individual or any corporation making them a part of its policy.

Are You Hungry For God?

Don't you sometimes feel a deep need of God? There is that within the human heart that can't always be satisfied with material thing, but reaches out sometimes for eternal, unchangeable things. We guarantee that when you come to our services you will always hear the truths of God set forth and explained. If you believe the word of God is good for Ukiah come and back us up by your presence at our services.
